ASIA

Plagued by a catastrophic pandemic, India's vulnerable Muslim communities received the charity's largest iftar programme in Asia. Thousands of families all over the country received iftar packs or financial assistance during the blessed month.

In the northern state of Assam, over two thousand, half of whom were poor Madrasa students were given cash grants to help them meet their needs.

Cash assistance was also delivered to thousands of orphaned and widowed families in Gujarat, West Bengal, Jammu Kashmir and in New Delhi.

Over 900 Iftar packs were also delivered to hundreds of families in Dehat, Mewat and Delhi.

In the low lying, cyclone prone lands of Bangladesh, 400 families (covering 1,300 children) were given Iftar to satisfy their hunger during Ramadhan.

On the other side of India, in Pakistan, a huge Iftar programme was delivered, alhamdulillah. Over 34,000 families across KPK, Punjab and Sindh were each given large Iftar packs for the blessed month.

Finally, in Sri Lanka, 1,500 poor families in the island's north and eastern areas were given cash grants with which to buy their food essentials for Ramadhan.

MIDDLE EAST

The blessed lands of Syria received one of the largest Iftar programmes where over 7,800 families received cash assistance, while thousands more received food aid. Your generosity helped families in the north of the country, specifically Idlib and Aleppo, and eased their worries during the blessed month of Ramadhan.

In neighbouring Iraq, over 200 families in the devastated regions of Mosul and Anbar were given food and cash assistance, to meet their needs for the month.

In besieged Gaza, Ummah Welfare Trust provided Iftar packs and cash assistance to 1,109 families. Packs were distributed across several towns including, Rafah, Khan Yunis, Nuseirat, Jabalya and Beit Lahiya.

Finally, in Yemen, over 650 families across Sana'a and its surrounding areas were given food packs and cash assistance. Thousands more in nearby regions were also given much needed cash assistance, alhamdulillah.

AFRICA

The African continent saw a multitude of cash and Iftar programmes. Your donations helped several thousands of hungry families this Ramadhan. To the East, in Ethiopia, over 800 families received financial assistance over 200 received Iftar packs.

South in Malawi, Iftar packs were provided to over 4,230 Iftar packs were delivered helping 7,000 beneficiaries. Families in the rural areas of Katema and Namwera were large packs to last the month of Ramadhan.

In West Africa, 3,650 families in the Gambia received large cash to help them with their needs in Ramadhan, whilst an additional 200 poor families received both cash grants and Iftar packs.

In Mauritania over 150 families facing food shortages were given Iftar packs to satisfy their hunger.

Finally, over 2,200 displaced families in Sierra Leone received cash grants as well as Iftar packs, assisting many vulnerable families at a time where economic activity has been greatly restricted due to the coronavirus.

SADAQATUL FITR | £552,786.16 SPENT

'The Prophet ﷺ declared the payment of Sadaqatul Fitr as obligatory; it purifies the fasting person from any indecent act or speech, and is a source of feeding the poor.'
[Abu Dawud]

Leading up to the Eid festivities, Ummah Welfare Trust distributed over £550,000 of your Sadaqatul Fitr contributions to poor families in Syria, Iraq, Pakistan, Gaza, Iraq, Ethiopia, Gambia and Malawi.

It was largest Fitr programme Ummah Welfare Trust that delivered, alhamdulillah. Bags of flour, rice or wheat were provided to over 50,000 families in total, allowing them to enjoy the auspicious day of Eid.

EID GIFTS | £254,915 SPENT

'From the most beloved deeds to Allah is to make a believer happy and remove a grief from him...' [Bayhaqi]

Your generous Eid Gift donations brought happiness to over 20,000 children this year, alhamdulillah.

Orphans in Syria, Gaza, Iraq, India and elsewhere were given money to treat themselves on the blessed day.
