FEEDBACK REPORT

'There is nothing more beloved to Allah that a slave can do on the day of Nahr than spill blood (i.e. Qurbani). On the Day of Judgement, it will be brought forth with its horns, hair, and hooves. Indeed, the blood will be accepted by Allah even before it spills on the ground, so whole-heartedly delight in (performing the sacrifice).'

FOLLOWING THE SUNNAH A SUMMARY

Ummah Welfare Trust sacrificed over 10,000 animals this Eid, thanks to your generosity. Your Udhiyyah reached hundreds of thousands of poor Muslims across 15 countries, alhamdulillah.

Your offerings brought smiles and happiness to the poor, orphaned, and displaced. For many, it was their first taste of meat this year, truly bringing the blessings of Eid to those in need.

May Allah accept your sacrifices. And let us heed the lessons of Dhul Hijjah's blessed days by learning to give up all that we hold dear for Allah's sake.
